MEMORANDUM TO: Mr. Benjamin Warfield
Chief, Office of Training
United States Information Agency
Washington, D. C.

SUBJECT: Training Publications for USIA

With reference to your letter of June 30 requesting certain instructional materials, particularly The Red Interpreter, I am advised that you have now received multiple copies of 55 monographs and charts and 50 copies of The Red Interpreter.

Recently, copies of the Supplement, Vol. V, The Red Interpreter, have been completed in mimeograph form. These will be forwarded to you at your convenience. (Reproduction of additional instructional materials which you requested has not been completed.)

Presently, it is not necessary to ask you to assume a portion of the cost of reproducing these materials.

WASHINGTON

June 30, 1955

MEMORANDUM TO: Mr. Matthew Baird
Director of Training
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

SUBJECT: Training Publications for USIA

Previous phone conversations between Mr. Henry Loomis and Mr. Edward Carroll of the Office of Research and Intelligence, USIA, with [redacted] on the subject of "The Red Interpreter" have covered the possibility of disseminating it to our overseas posts in some quantity. USIA's Information Center Service would like to procure 50 copies to send to the principal overseas posts to obtain their impression of its usefulness to them and recommendations as to the number of copies they could use. We have in mind the possibility of publishing an additional several thousand. It would, therefore, be very much appreciated if 50 sets could be delivered to me for IRI and ICS.

USIA would be glad to reimburse CIA for the cost of reproducing these materials, or the question of compensation can be deferred until it is decided whether "The Red Interpreter" is to be published, and copies supplied to you.
